

ARLINGTON JONES

Pianist. Composer. Educator.

“I truly believe music is a powerful gift from God, and with this gift comes great responsibility. Of course, musicians must be diligent in practice and study of an instrument, but I have come to realize that there is more. I want the world to be moved by the music I create, but actually, I believe God is most concerned with how I live away from the piano. I desire to be a man that loves God and always keeps Him first. I want to be a great husband, father, friend and man that makes a positive contribution to society.”

—Arlington Jones

CONCERTS

Arlington Jones is a classically trained jazz piano maestro and prolific composer with an undeniable soulful music heritage. He makes the piano speak through lush harmonies, impeccable groove, and infectious energy. His music reveals the history of traditional and modern jazz, influenced by ragtime, stride, classical, blues, Latin, funk, and sacred styles. Whether performing solo or with his band, Arlington Jones & The Brethren, Jones delivers an unforgettable music journey – a contagious toe-tapping, finger-snapping, hand-clapping, head-bobbing experience!

He has put a new song in my mouth – Praise to our God; Many will see it and fear, And will trust in the Lord. -Psalm 40:3 NKJV

MUSIC WORKSHOPS

Jones knows how to get people excited about creating music with his innovative teaching concepts and hands-on training style. He addresses the importance of music theory for all musicians and strategies for ensemble playing based on concepts from his book The Way I Hear It™ Jazz Piano Techniques. He conducts engaging Q&A discussions about the discipline and diligence it takes to be a complete musician based on biblical truths. This workshop is for musicians, worship ensembles, and bands.
